"The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee" – Commonweal Theatre

In this charming musical, quirky sixth-graders battle for the ultimate title: spelling champ of Putnam Valley Middle School! With each new word, the earnest combatants reveal their passions, fears, and dreams through hilarious and touching tunes. (And it's not just about the spelling: the adult cast is ultra geek-chic in their middle school costumes!) Alan Bailey, director of such audience favorites as Souvenir and Sylvia, returns for this Tony Award-winning musical about friendship, sacrifice, and valuable lessons in fair play.

"The Great Society" – St. Paul History Theatre

Robert Schenkkan's Tony Award-winning play All the Way set the stage for President Lyndon Baines Johnson's sudden ascent to the White House. In its D.C. premiere, The Great Society brings the second half of Schenkkan's epic story to its harrowing conclusion. As America is divided by civil rights protests and the anguish of the Vietnam War, LBJ struggles to maintain his relationship with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., keep his political opponents in check and complete a raft of impossibly ambitious social policy projects. This is a political thrill ride that explores the America of our past to better understand the America of today. "The Clean House" – Commonweal Theatre

Is there anything more fulfilling than finally getting your house truly, deeply clean? We may never know because The Clean House is a side-splitting comedy about a cleaning lady who'd rather perfect her stand-up routine than clean the house. As she spends her days not cleaning, she befriends her boss's sister—who lives only to clean. Toss in a love triangle and some sibling rivalries and you get a whimsical and moving portrait of humanity, reminding us that the messes and disappointments of life can be the most unexpectedly fulfilling times of all.

The Church Basement Ladies in "You Smell Barn" – Ames Center in Bloomington

From the basement to the barn, your beloved Church Basement Ladies are back and getting busy with life outside the kitchen. After the last of the hotdish is served, the coffee pot is emptied, and the Jello molds are put away, these steadfast, sturdy women head to their farms, peel off their good girdles, and get on with their daily chores. In between picking eggs, milking cows, and dusting knickknacks, they congregate with some of the other lovable folks who inhabit this rural community: Earl, who delivers the mail; Fergus, the hired man; and Tillie, who chronicles the action for the Fish County Weekly. With plenty of crazy antics, loads of fresh laughs, and spanking new original songs, You Smell Barn celebrates rural life in the 1950's. Whether you've seen several versions, or are new to the world of the basement in the series is a musical treat for all. Inspired by the new book "GROWING UP RURAL, YOU SMELL BARN" by Janet Letnes Martin and Suzann Nelson.

"Radio Gals" - A Razzamatuzz Musical Comedy – Ives Auditorium in Bloomington

Set in the 1920's when radio ruled the airwaves and small stations thrived, Radio Gals is a charming musical about Hazel Hunt from Cedar Ridge, Arkansas, who broadcasts from her front parlor with her "all-girl" orchestra, "The Hazelnuts," as radio WGAL. However, Hazel's broadcasts are not always so local due to her habit of impinging on other frequencies, like NBC's, attracting the attention of a federal radio inspector who's intent on shutting down WGAL. It turns out though, he has a fine tenor voice, plays a mean accordion and quickly becomes enchanted by the "Hazelnuts."

"Teen Idol: The Bobby Vee Story" – St. Paul History Theatre

The day the music died – when a plane carrying Buddy Holly, Richie Valens, and J.P. "The Big Bopper" Richardson crashed in Clearlake, Iowa – was also the day that a new young performer from Fargo would begin his rise to fame. That night, 15-year-old Bobby Vee replaced the lost stars in their scheduled performance, and subsequently would go on to put 38 songs on the Billboard Hot 100 charts – including well-known hits like "The Night Has a Thousand Eyes" and "Rubber Ball" – achieve two gold albums, and help put the Midwest music scene on the map. "An audience can expect to come and see the story of his life," – from Vee's early work as a 1960s teen idol to a "consummate performer and writer in his later years."

“Rock of Ages” – Orpheum Theatre

Aqua Net, Lycra, lace and liquor flow freely at one of the Sunset Strips last legendary venues, a place where sex machine Stacey Jaxx takes the stage and scantily clad groupies line up to turn their fantasies into reality. Amidst the madness, aspiring rock star (and resident toilet cleaner) Drew longs to take the stage as the next big thing (and longs for small-town girl Sherri, fresh off the bus from Kansas with stars in her eyes). But the rock and roll fairy-tale is about to end when German developers sweep into town with plans to turn the fabled Strip into just another capitalist strip mall. Can Drew, Sherri and the gang save the strip – and themselves – before it’s too late? The music of hit bands Styx, Journey, Bon Jovi, Whitesnake and more hold the answer.
